Local singing group, "The Memories"--Warren Petryk, Tim Stevens, & John Lynch, return to the Mabel Tainter Theater for their annual Christmas Concert. Their concerts feature traditional Christmas carols & favorite songs of the season, including the Christmas Story with Bible verses & hymns. They got their start singing & playing music in high school choir & band in Boyceville, WI; and in 1972 were asked to perform for a friend's wedding dance & the Cucumber Festival. It grew from there. Starting part-time, Warren, Tim, & John performed everywhere they could. At their peak, they were full-time entertainers traveling from coast to coast. John retired from the group in 1988, & Warren & Tim continued to perform full time until 1995 & began performing as a duo in 2000 when John left the group. All three will be together on-stage again at the Mabel Tainter to celebrate the holiday season.
